

Daniel T. Gorecki

December 19, 1977 - May 26, 2022

Gorecki, Daniel Thomas

Beloved son of Thomas and Susan Gorecki died on May 26 at the age of 44 with his parents by his side.

Dan was born in Buffalo, New York on December 19, 1977. He moved with his parents and sister to Pennsylvania and finally to Minnesota. He attended Osseo 279 School District where he was in several plays, played the trombone and was drum major in the Osseo Senior High Marching Band. During high school he worked at Snyder Drug Store by his sister's side and after high school he attended Hennepin Community College. Dan held several positions at Wells Fargo, the latest in the retirement group, until his division was bought out by Principal Financial and has been working for them the last couple of years. He was well thought of and very proud of what he did.

He is survived by his parents, sister Jennifer Moline (Derek), nephew Andrew Moline, niece Kara Moline, uncle Don and aunt Sandi Gorecki, uncle Jamie and aunt Sue Gorecki, aunt Sally Fruechte, cousins Michael Fruechte, Kim Clark, Kevin Nunemaker, Paul Gorecki, Jill McAtee, close friends Andrea Deutsch, Dave Rivers, Noah Johnson, and many more family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Bill and Mary Nunemaker Sr. and Joe and Frankie Gorecki, and his uncles Bill Nunemaker Jr. and Mike Fruechte.

He has been cremated and will be entombed at Mt. Calvary Cemetery in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Services will be private at a later date.
