

Alcuin "Al" Roering

February 10, 1932 - June 18, 2023

Alcuin "Al" Roering, age 91 of Brooklyn Center, passed on 6/18/23.

Survived by wife of 66 years, Adelle; children, Linda, Eugene (Maria), Darrell (Michelle), Brenda (Pete), Bonnie (Daryl), Kevin; grandchildren, Krista, Jessica (Dylan), Gabriel (Olivia), Melissa (Steve), Chelsea (Bryan), Matthew (Francine), Asher, Taysia, Benjamin (Anca), Tischauna (Andy), Amanda (Andrew), Joey, Alexander (Alexa), Brittany (Jordan); & great-grandchildren, Desiree, Kellan, Kaydin, Hailee, Zoey, Oliver & Lillian.

Al enjoyed many interests and hobbies over the years. He loved bowling, fishing, hunting, golfing & most recently his many adventures to the casino. He always seemed to be a lucky guy which was evident when he attended the St. Alphonsus Fun Fair one year and won their top prize of a new car! He also brought that luck (and skill) to bowling and golf. He was an avid bowler who was able to participate in Bowlerama, a bowling competition and tv show, and won several prizes. Al showed his skill (and luck) on the golf course too. He got a hole in one and was able to get an eagle during some of his golf outings. Although, he did have a fun time losing his golf ball on the course one day, but with his luck, he found his own ball in the hood on his own shirt.

Al was a wonderful husband, dad, grandpa and great-grandpa. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.
